COAL PORTERS' STRIKE IN DUBLIN.

A SERIOUS SITUATION.

LORD MAYOR'S STATEMENT.

SITUATION AT THE PORT.

A correspondent writes.—The deadlock between the Dublin Coal Merchants' Association and the hundreds of their employes continues at the port, where the only cargoes now being discharged are those for which tempence per four is paid to the coalporters. Yesterday two steamers—both belonging to the Coal and General Steamship Company, Ltd.—were bernhed in line at the North Wall, the Patricia having a general cargo and the Enda 900 tons of coal, which arrived over a week ago. The first-named steamer was discharged at lively rate by one act of the company's employes, whist the other was left untouched by the coal workers of the same concern. An often has, it appears, been made to the men on strike to hire a hall for a meeting, where definite labour prices for the enauing twelve ments might be arranged. If this course could be taken, importing firms could make arrangements for their annual contracts to large institutions and public concerns, in addition to the supplies for the general public. Some of the coal which is reaching the purposes. The outlook at the port is by no means reassuring. SITUATION AT THE PORT.

In an almost full House Mr. Churchill repeated some of his criticisms of the mangement of the land forces, and made an eloquent and much appreciated appeal for a large distribution of medals and awards to the men in the trenches "on whom we are all living." He thought "that the Distinguished Order and the Military Cross should be confined to officers who had earned them under fire or in the danger zone. It was cheapening these distinctions to give them for work, however useful, done twenty or thirty miles behind the lines."

(PRESS ASSOCIATION WAR SPECIAL) PARIS, MONDAY.

At half-past nine in the evening of June 20 Sub-Lieutenant Marchal left Nancy on a Nieuport monoplane of a special type, cargying previsions and petrol sufficient for a fourteen hours' flight, his mission being to fiy over Germany at a low altitude, distribute pamphlets over Berlin, and land in Russia. The first part of this daring programme was carried out as planned, but unfortunately, after accomplishing this part of his task, and after having flower throughout the night, the aviator was forced to descend near Cholm, in Poland, at half-past eight in the morning of June 21, less than saxty-three miles from the Russian lines, and was made prisoner. The pamphleta scattered by the aviator over Berlin began with the words, "We might have bombarded the open city of Berlin, and thus have killed women and children, but we content ourselves simply with distributing the following proclamation."

Sub-Lieutenant Marchal, who is a prisoner at Raisorback, succeeded in sending a postcard to France, giving the above details and the following particulars of his capture—"I was taken prisoner at 8.30 a.m. on June 21st at Cholm. Austrian officers refused to credit what I had just done, but proof of it afterwards arrived, and they were forced to accept the facts. My PARIS, MONDAY

The one thing gained already in spite of the apparent dashing of high hopes, says The Times, is the measure of agreement once reached by the leaders of the two Irish parties. This is something new in Irish affairs, and its value, though depositated by the events of yesterday, must remain sterling. Meanwhile the King's Government in Ireland must be carried on, and His Majesty's Ministers must produce their plan forthwith, if the rising tide of disaffection and discontent is to be stemmed. GRANTS TO RELATIVES OF

WOMEN WORKERS-AN URGENT

The following letter has been received in Dublin from Readquarters in London of the British Red Cross Society:—

"A real and urgent necessity has arisen for more nurse, V.A.D. nursing members (women), and V.A.D. general service members, in military and auxiliary hospitals. The demands made upon us by the military authorities are very heavy, and cannot be met out of the existing supply. There must still be many women who are not giving the whole of their time and service to the war, and who have no ties which prevent them from doing so. We earnestly call upon these women to come forward and help us in this emergency, and thus mable us to answer the call of the sick and wounded men. At the suggestion of the military authorities, the necessity for women V.A.D. nursing members to possess the first sid and nursing certificate has been temporarily suspended. Suitable women who are willing to help in the hospitals may, therefore, be attached to existing Voluntary Aid Detachments for immediate service in the hospitals."

Full information on this point may be obtained from the Joint V.A.D. Committee, $1 laswon street, or from the Assistant County Directors, $1 Dawson street, or from the Assistant County Directors, $1 Dawson street, or from the Assistant County William street, Dublin.

Mr. SAMUEL, in reply to Mr. Byrne, said that Government employes suspected of complicity in the recent rebellion had been suspended by the responsible heads of their departments pending an investigation, which was about to be held into these cases. So far, no instance had come to his notice in which departments had dismissed officials on the ground of such complicity.

Mr. LUNDON asked if the right hom gentleman could state the composition of the Committee.

Mr. SAMUEL—Is will consist of two distinguished civil servants—Sir Guy Fleetwood-Wilson and Sir William Byrne.

Mr. SAMUEL informed Mr. Ginnell that, in consequence of his (Mr. Ginnell's) visits to Irish priscuers having caused a disturbance, permission would not be given to him to make further visits.

DANGEROUS POSITION.

What happened yesterday in the House of Commons means, in all probability, the end of Mr. Lloyd George's sottlement of the Irish difficulty, says the Dosiy Mail. The Government have muddled many things, but nothing so egregiously as this. This, the latest muddle of a long series, brings the Government into a very dangerous position.

Dear Sirs, Fleetwood, Fleetwood, Enclosed you will find photo of our baby-boy, eleven months old. Up to being three months old he was small and puny, and never ceased crying. We had a most trying time with him and he looked so bad we wate ashamed of anyoue seeing him, those who did see him declared he would not live. So, after trying various foodssome very expensive—we decided to try Virol, and from the first itsed he improved; he took to Virol straight away and Virol took to him, with the result you see. He has thrived and grown bigger than habies that were twice his size when he was three months old. He is just starting to walk, his flesh is solid and firm and very good bone. Virol is not like a lot of flesby flesh on, we are convinced it is a boos grower and seeh former.

Dublin's New Seprane.—Miss Mildred Telford, the winner of the Feis Ceoil soprane prise, who was described yesterday as coasing from Belfast, belongs to Dublin, and many persons will be interested to learn that she is the daughter of Mrs. Telford (nés Julis Fennell), who belonged at one time to the D'Oly Carte Opera Company, and was well known to Dublin audiences.

Bray Berough Court.—In the report of the proceedings at Bray Borough Court on Safurday it was stated that a question arcses as to which of the magistrates should occupy the chair, the right to preside being claimed by Mr. Magee, J.F., as Chairman of the Bray Urban Council, and the report attributed to Mr. Magee a statement to the effect that he had had a dispute on this point with Sir Albert Meldon, R.M., and that his (Mr. Magee's) view was eventually upheld. Sir Albert Meldon writes that there must be some mistake about the statement, as he "never had any difference with Mr. Magee on the subject."

Fruit Exports from Dublin.—The tide of the fruit trade has apparently an outward, as well heavy arrivals of fruit from the growing districts in England there is a steady stream of Irish-grown fruit going in the opposite direction, intended for consumption in Great Britain. The South of Ireland appears to be doing well in this regard this year.

A resolution was proposed by Mr. Finbar Leconard (chairman), and seconded by Mr. Finbar Leconard (chairman), and seconded by Mr. Finbar Leconard (chairman) and passed, teribering best thanks to the directors of Mesars Easen and Son, Ltd., for the manner in which they had received the Association's deputation, and for the satisfactory agreements arrived at
